STANDARD CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT FOR SENIOR STAFF (OTHER THAN GENERAL MANAGERS) IN FORCE FROM 1 SEPTEMBER 2006 AND PUBLICATION OF INTERACTIVE VERSIONS OF THE STANDARD CONTRACTS

Councils were recently notified by Circular No 06-37 regarding my approval of the Standard Contract of Employment for General Managers of Local Councils in New South Wales.

I have by Order under section 338(4) of the Local Government Act 1993 now approved the Standard Contract of Employment for Senior Staff (other than General Managers) of Local Councils in New South Wales to be in force from 1 September 2006. This contract represents the standard documentation that general managers must use when appointing senior staff.

Please refer to Circular 06-37 for the background to development of the standard contracts.

The new requirements ensure consistency and certainty in employment relationships at the management level in local government and reflect community expectations by providing greater transparency and accountability. They also ensure appropriate flexibility by allowing certain contractual matters to be left to the parties to negotiate, namely:

- duration of the contract (within legislative limits)
- structure and level of the remuneration package and
- performance-based requirements.

The Local Government and Shires Associations of NSW (LGSA), in consultation with Local Government Managers Australia (LGMA), and with the assistance of the Department, will issue guidelines on remuneration packaging and developing performance management systems and agreements in the near future.

Industry groups including the LGSA, LGMA, the Development and Environmental Professionals' Association, the Local Government Engineers' Association of NSW and the United Services Union can provide advice to their members about performance and remuneration matters and other contractual conditions.

Parties may also seek and be guided by their own legal and financial advice before entering contracts.

The new standard contract requirements will not affect existing employment contracts. Any renewals of appointments must be under the standard contract in force (see sections 338(8) and 338(9) of the Act).

Contracts now available as interactive publications

I am pleased to announce the release of the standard contracts of employment for general managers and other senior staff as interactive publications. This will now allow users to download the documents from the Department's website at www.dlg.nsw.gov.au, complete certain fields electronically where appropriate and print the completed contracts ready for signing.

Tribunal determinations are published in the Government Gazette and are available at www.remtribunals.nsw.gov.au. The Premier's Department issues periodic Memoranda summarising the Tribunals determinations. These Memoranda are available at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

- 8.6 The structure of the total remuneration package may be varied from time to time during the term of this contract by agreement between the employee and Council, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 8.7 The total remuneration package, as varied from time to time, remunerates the employee for all work undertaken by the employee while in the position. - 4.2 The general manager acts for and on behalf of Council as the employer of the employee under this contract.
- 4.3 Where the employer lawfully authorises a person to act as his or her delegate and carry out any of the employer's duties, obligations or actions required to be carried out under this contract, this contract will be construed as if any relevant reference to the employer includes a reference to that delegate.
- 4.4 A reference in this contract to any Act or regulation, or any provision of any Act or regulation, includes a reference to subsequent amendments of that Act, regulation or provision.
- 4.5 A reference to a Schedule to this contract refers to a Schedule as may be varied in accordance with this contract, and applies whether or not the Schedule has been physically attached to this contract.

7 Performance agreement and review

- 7.1 Within 3 months after the commencement date, the employee and the employer will sign a performance agreement setting out agreed performance criteria.

- 7.7 The structure and process of the performance review is at the discretion of the employer following consultation with the employee.
- 7.8 The employee may prepare and submit to the employer an assessment of the employee's own performance prior to a performance review.

- 7.11 Subject to the employee being available and willing to attend a performance review, the employer undertakes that if a performance review is not held in accordance with this clause, this will not operate to the prejudice of the employee unless the employee is responsible for the failure to hold the performance review.

See Schedule C.

- 8.3 The employer may, on only one occasion during each year of this contract, approve an increase in the total remuneration package where the employee's performance has been assessed in accordance with a performance review as being of a better than satisfactory standard.
- 8.4 Any increase in remuneration approved under subclause 8.3 will not be paid as a lump sum.
- 8.5 On each anniversary of the commencement date, the total remuneration package will be increased by a percentage amount that is equivalent to the latest percentage amount increase in remuneration for senior executive office holders as determined by the Statutory and Other Officers Remuneration Tribunal.

Note: When making determinations referred to in subclause 8.5, the Tribunal takes into account key national economic indicators and movements in public sector remuneration across Australia, market conditions, the Consumer Price Index and wages growth as measured by the Wage Cost Index. Tribunal determinations are published in the Government Gazette and are available at www.remtribunals.nsw.gov.au. The Premier's Department issues periodic Memoranda summarising the Tribunals determinations. These Memoranda are available at www.premiers.nsw.gov.au.

- 8.6 The structure of the total remuneration package may be varied from time to time during the term of this contract by agreement between the employee and the employer, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld.
- 8.7 The total remuneration package, as varied from time to time, remunerates the employee for all work undertaken by the employee while in the position.
