The new councillor induction and professional development requirements under the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005

- The general manager is to ensure an induction program is delivered for newly elected and returning councillors and a specialised supplementary induction program for the mayor within six months of their election.
- The general manager is to ensure an ongoing professional development program is delivered for the mayor and each councillor over the term of the council for the purposes of assisting them to acquire and maintain the skills necessary to perform their role.
- The content of the ongoing professional development program to be delivered to the mayor and councillors is to be determined in consultation with the mayor and each councillor and is to have regard to the specific skills required by the mayor, each individual councillor and the governing body as a whole to perform their roles.
- Mayors and councillors must make all reasonable efforts to participate in the activities offered to them as part of an induction or ongoing professional development program.
- Councils are to publish the following information in their annual reports:
 - the name of the mayor and each individual councillor that completed council's induction program (where an induction program has been delivered during the relevant year)
 - the name of the mayor and each councillor who participated in any ongoing professional development program during the year
 - the number of training and other activities provided to the mayor and councillors during the year as part of a professional development program, and
 - the total cost of induction and professional development activities and any other training provided to the mayor and councillors during the relevant year.
- The above requirements do not apply to joint organisations
