What's new or changing?

- The Local Government Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) has determined an increase of 3.7% to mayoral and councillor fees for the 2026-27 financial year, with effect from 1 July 2026.
- The Tribunal is required to determine the remuneration categories of councils and mayoral offices at least once every 3 years under section 239 of the Local Government Act 1993 (the Act). The Tribunal last undertook a significant review of the categories as part of its 2023 determination.
- In undertaking its review this year, the Tribunal concluded that it was necessary to rectify a criteria anomaly identified in the 'Regional Strategic' category established by the 2023 annual determination, and to adjust the population criteria for the 'Major Strategic Area' category, from 300,000 to 200,000.
- The Tribunal found that the allocation of most councils into the current categories continued to be appropriate having regard to the 2023 review, the current category model and criteria, and the evidence put forward in the submissions received. However, the Tribunal has reclassified Dungog Shire Council as 'Rural Large' due to population growth.
- The Tribunal has indicated it will undertake a further review of the categories of councils as part of its 2027 determination.

What will this mean for council?

- Section 248 and 249 of the Act require councils to fix and pay an annual fee to councillors and mayors from 1 July 2026 based on the Tribunal's determination for the 2026-27 financial year.

Key points

- The level of fees paid will depend on the category the council is in.
- A council cannot fix a fee higher than the maximum amount determined by the Tribunal.
- If a council does not fix a fee, the council must pay the minimum fee determined by the Tribunal.
