APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE, OFFICE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Minister for Local Government Paul Toole has welcomed the appointment of Ms Marcia Doheny to the position of Chief Executive, Office of Local Government.

Mr Toole said Ms Doheny is an experienced public servant, having previously worked in senior positions at the former Department of Commerce and the Department of Planning. For the past six years, Ms Doheny has worked with the City of Sydney Council as its General Counsel, Director Legal & Governance.

“I congratulate Ms Doheny on her appointment. I am confident that she will provide strong and effective leadership.

“I look forward to working closely with Ms Doheny, and harnessing her extensive experience in local government in the significant time ahead for our State. We share the goal of supporting councils to become Fit for the Future and working to strengthen communities across NSW.”

Ms Doheny’s appointment took effect from 20 April 2015.
